

Birmingham Business License Seminar

Presented by:

The Birmingham city council recently approved a change to the Contractor's business license tax. The change will become effective on January 1, 2016. On November 12th, the City of Birmingham and the coalition of associations that worked with the city on these changes will host a seminar explaining the new process. Association representatives, City of Birmingham's finance department and City of Birmingham's legal department representatives will be in attendance. After the presentation the panel will address pre-submitted questions received on or before November 9, 2015. Please include any questions you may have in the space provided below.
